

WASHINGTON

1. King County Criminal Justice Initiatives Project. The King County Criminal Justice Initiatives provide treatment and reentry support services for individuals who are justice-involved, indigent or low income, with mental health, substance use, or co-occurring conditions who may also be homeless. (206) 263-8954
<http://www.kingcounty.gov/healthservices/MentalHealth.aspx> dave.murphy@kingcounty.gov
King County Mental Health, Chemical Abuse and Dependency Services Division, 401 5th Ave., Ste. 400, Seattle, WA 98104
2. ReEntry Coalition of Whatcom County. Mission Statement: To promote systems of restorative justice and assist persons in the process of re-entering our community after incarceration. (360) 739-7493
<http://whatcomrec.org/main.html> info@whatcomrec.org
Restorative Community Coalition, P.O. Box 31026, Bellingham, WA 98228
3. Opportunity Council. The Opportunity Council is a private, non-profit Community Action Agency serving homeless and low-income families and individuals. Our goal is to help people learn to become self-sufficient. (360) 734-5121
<http://www.oppco.org/> info@oppco.org
Opportunity Council, 1419 Cornwall Ave., Bellingham, WA 98225
4. Goodwill Industries of the Inland Northwest Headquartered in Spokane, Washington. Goodwill Industries of the Inland Northwest is one of more than 160 independent members of Goodwill Industries International. We serve individuals and families in 23 counties throughout eastern Washington and northern Idaho. (509) 838-4246
<http://www.discovergoodwill.org/> DiscoverGoodwill@giin.org
Goodwill Industries of the Inland Northwest, 130 East Third Ave., Spokane, WA 99202
5. Justice Works! A grassroots criminal justice reform organization focusing on 3-Strikes reform, prisoner re-entry, and registering previously incarcerated people to vote. (206) 725-9189
<http://www.fix3strikes.org> justice\_works@yahoo.com
Justice Works!, 5101 Rainier Ave S Ste. 106, Seattle, WA 98118
6. People For People (PFP). People For People strengthens communities by providing opportunities that empower people to lead self-sufficient and enriched lives. (509) 925-5311
<http://www.pfp.org/> patc@pfp.org
Ellensburg Employment & Training, 309 East Mountain View, Stes. 1-7, Ellensburg, WA 98926
7. Seattle Goodwill. Goodwill is a 501(c)3 nonprofit organization whose mission is to help low-income and disadvantaged people in our community prepare for and secure jobs so they can achieve self-sufficiency for themselves and their families. (206) 329-1000
<http://www.seattlegoodwill.org> goodwill@seattlegoodwill.org
Seattle Goodwill, 700 Dearborn Pl., S., Seattle, WA 98144

WASHINGTON (CONT.)

8. Conviction Careers. Conviction Careers exists to fill a gap between employers and job seekers with criminal backgrounds. We know from Department of Corrections studies that our program cuts the recidivism rate by 50%. (866) 436-1960
<http://www.convictioncareers.org> info@convictioncareers.org
Conviction Careers, P.O. Box 432, Lynnwood, WA 98046
9. Fresh Start Jail and Prison Programs. Fresh Start began as an outreach program within the jail and prison system as an intensive, reflective faith-based program in self-evaluation and re-directional life planning and has grown from there. Today Fresh Start provides a continuum of housing and support services to strengthen sustained recovery and self-sufficiency of our residents. (206) 486-4493
<http://freshstarhousingwa.org/index1.html> info@freshstarhousingwa.org
Fresh Start Housing of Washington, 10924 Mukilteo Spdwy., Ste. 230, Mukilteo, WA 98275
10. Institutions Project - Reentry Clinics. The Reentry Clinic provides free legal services to low-income men and women with criminal records facing barriers to successful reentry. The clinic focuses on legal issues related to legal financial obligations (fees, fines and restitution) and access to employment and housing. (206) 287-8625
<http://columbialegal.org/> alex.bergstrom@columbialegal.org
Columbia Legal Services, 101 Yesler Wy., Ste. 300, , Seattle, WA 98104
11. Mentally Ill Offender Services Program. Provides co-occurring disorder integrated case management, individual and group therapy, sex offender treatment, domestic violence treatment, chemical dependency treatment, vocational training, payee services, coordination with courts and probation, medication management, referrals to medical services and assistance identifying housing. (206) 302 - 2300
<http://smh.org> development@smh.org
Sound Mental Health, 1600 E. Olive St., Seattle, WA, 98122
12. The STAR Project. STAR's mission is to provide persons being released from incarceration with the essential tools to successfully re-integrate into the community as productive, contributing members of society. Our vision is: to increase community safety and reduce recidivism by assisting persons to successfully transition from incarceration to the community. (509) 525-3612
<http://www.thestarproject.us/> jamesc@thestarproject.us
The STAR Project, 321 Wellington Ave., Walla Walla, WA, 99362
13. New Connections - Irma Gary House Located in Tacoma's Hilltop neighborhood. New Connections' Irma Gary House provides a supportive, clean and sober home for women recently released from correctional facilities in Washington state. Women are provided with housing, intensive case management, advocacy, and re-entry support for up to six months. New Connections helps residents meet basic needs and access support services such as counseling and job training. (253) 617-1405

<http://www.nctacoma.org> info@nctacoma.org

New Connections, 613 S. 15th St., Tacoma, Washington 98405

WASHINGTON (CONT.)

14. Freedom Project Inside Prison Programs. Freedom Project Reintegration Services. Teaches nonviolent communication and mindfulness classes to inmates in Washington State prisons. Also conducts community workshops in nonviolent communication for the public as well as community circles for both returnees and community members, together, to help returning prisoners reintegrate back into the community. (206) 325 – 5678

<http://freedomprojectseattle.org/> seattlefreedomproject@gmail.com

Freedom Project Seattle, 4759 15th Ave. N.E., Ste. 301, P.O. Box 31191, Seattle, WA 98103

15. Unkitawa. Unkitawa are statewide contractors for the native American population for all of Washington state. Holds the Native American Services contract with the WA Department of Corrections. Unkitawa offers reentry services to relatives pre and post incarceration, offering events, engagements, and case management services, providing a sense of “community”, connections and the knowledge that they are not alone. (206) 679-4791. Re-entry program director: Jeremy Garretson (360) 742-8780

<https://unkitawa.org/reentry> jeremy@unkitawa.org hello@unkitawa.org