

COLORADO

1. The Empowerment Program The Empowerment Program provides re-entry services for women leaving prisons and jails.

(303) 320-1989, <http://www.empowermentprogram.org>, info@empowermentprogram.org

The Empowerment Program, Inc., 1600 York St., Denver, CO 80206
2. Focus Re-Entry The mission of Focus Reentry is to promote successful second chances, reduce recidivism, and enhance the well-being and safety of our community. Focus Reentry mentors serve as a bridge in their clients' transitions back into society, helping them to stabilize, rebuild their lives, and eventually achieve self-sufficiency.

(720) 304-6446, <http://www.focusreentry.org>, info@focusreentry.org

FOCUS Reentry, 4705 Baseline Rd., Boulder, CO 80303
3. Homeward Alliance Re-Entry \(Services for People on Parole\) The Re-Entry program empowers people on parole to overcome personal challenges, connect to resources, locate employment and secure housing.

(970) 408-0378, <https://www.homewardalliance.org/>, Bree@HomewardAlliance.org

Homeward Alliance, 242 Conifer Street, Fort Collins, CO 80524
4. Making Choices Re-entry The Making Choices Re-entry program is designed to help recently released women take charge of their future. It helps those in re-entry stay goal-focused. It provides coaching on how to make good decisions. It helps each woman make choices that fit with her values and what is most important to her.

(303) 383-1610, <http://www.cfsaw.org>, info@cfsaw.org

The Center for Spirituality at Work (CFSAW), P.O. Box 102168, Denver, CO 80250
5. Jefferson Center for Mental Health: Adult Services: Criminal Justice Programs Jefferson Center offers a wide variety of services for adults that build on your strengths and empower you in your recovery. We offer a variety of services and education tools for adults to help reintegrate back into the community and prevent further involvement in the criminal justice system.

(303) 425-0300, <https://www.jcmh.org/>, info@jcmh.org

Jefferson Center for Mental Health, 4851 Independence St., Ste. 200, Wheat Ridge, CO 80033
6. The Potter's House of Denver: Prison Ministry Outreach Every year the Prison Ministry of the Potter's House of Denver travels approximately 23,600 miles to preach to 7,200 inmates in eleven prisons throughout the state of Colorado. At most of these prisons, our teams provide a full service complete with music, worship, prayer and the preached word of God. Several of the prisons served by our Prison Ministry allow the weekly Sunday morning church service, others the Department of Correction allowed once a month services. At some institutions we minister to over 180 persons packed into prison gymnasiums while there are other maximum security facilities where we can only visit one person, one cell unit at a time.

(303) 369-8514, <http://www.tphd.org/>, PrisonOutreach@tphd.org

The Potter's House of Denver, 9495 East Florida Avenue, Denver, CO 80247

COLORADO (CONT.)

7. CommunityWorks: Back to Business Back to Business provides in-demand industry recognized credentials to clients around skills needed to procure and maintain a job. These industry recognized credentials address expectations and may include industry specific hard and soft skills. Back To Business provides direct placement in jobs for clients. Back to Business maintains collaborative relationships with employers to increase success. In addition to career training and job placement Back To Business leverages services that help older ex-offenders stay employed continuously, which is a key to long-term success. This creates financial stability leads to housing stability. In addition, we provide life skills assistance to help address other issues related to success—financial management, time management, conflict resolution, anger management, parenting, reconciliation, and interpersonal communication skills.

(719) 354-6640, <https://www.commwrks.org/>, randrews@commwrks.org

Community Works, 6000 E Evans Ave., Denver, CO 80222

8. Desert Waters Correctional Outreach \(DWCO\) Desert Waters Correctional Outreach is a top leader in the wellness of corrections organizations and corrections staff, offering world-class, evidence-informed trainings and related materials, based on cutting-edge research.

(719) 784-4727, <http://desertwaters.com/>, desertwaters@desertwaters.com

DWCO, 431 East Main Street, P.O. Box 355, Florence, CO 81226

9. Unchained Books Unchained Books is a small group in Fort Collins, Colorado committed to prisoner support. Our primary focus is collecting donated books and making them available free to people imprisoned in Colorado. In addition to our book project, we also write letters to political prisoners and work on periodic individual prisoner support in the form of fundraising, outreach, and building community awareness about specific legal struggles.

(970) 221-1339, <http://unchainedbooks.wordpress.com/>, unchainedbooks@riseup.net

Unchained Books, P.O. Box 784, Fort Collins, CO 80522

10. 72 Hour Fund 72 Hour Fund offers vital, solid, hands-on assistance for former inmates as they take positive steps towards successful reintegration.

(303) 292-2304, <http://www.doinghistime.org>, chris@doinghistime.org

Doing HIS Time (DHT) Prison Ministry, P.O. Box 1508, Wheat Ridge, CO 80034

11. Life-Line Life-Line is a community outreach and support program designed to assist our local at-risk population. We focus on strategic intervention, prevention, and re-entry programming, helping members of our community live productive, fruitful lives. We work to replace drugs, alcohol and violence with love, security and safety, providing a wide range of services to anyone who needs them.

(720) 328-5650, <https://life-linecolorado.org/>, socialmedia@life-linecolorado.org

Life-Line, 1212 Mariposa St., Ste. 1, Denver, CO 80204

COLORADO (CONT.)

12. Redeemed Ones Jail & Prison Ministry, Inc. From the time of its incorporation in 1990, Redeemed Ones has been dedicated to meeting the needs of the incarcerated, their families and the needy in the community. We discovered that one way to offer true hope and encouragement to the inmates was to help meet the needs of their families, both while the parents was incarcerated and during that difficult transition back into society after release.

(303) 574-3347, <https://sites.google.com/site/redeemedonesministry/>, redeemedonesmin@msn.com

Redeemed Ones, Jail & Prison Ministry, Inc., P.O. Box 31105, Aurora, CO 80041

13. The Road Called STRATE: Ex-Offenders\Re-Entry Citizens The Road Called STRATE's goal is to keep as many ex-offenders as possible from returning to the detention facility and to help them become productive members of society. This includes using mentoring and counseling to help them stay off of drugs, move away from gang involvement, and implement a plan for their lives. The Road Called STRATE has taken on this major challenge in the workforce development field for ex-offenders in the State of Colorado.

(303) 520-5118, <http://www.theroadcalledstrate.com/home.html>,
information@theroadcalledstrate.com

The Road Called STRATE, 14211 E. 4th Ave., Bldg. 3, Suite 138, Aurora, CO 80011

14. Shekinah Christian Ministries \(SCM\): Prisons and Jails Shekinah Christian Ministries (SCM) is a non-profit faith-based organization, funding programs to recruit, approve, train and equip volunteers to reach largely unreachable people group with the love and hope of eternal life and transformation in Jesus Christ. We target adult and teen inmates in Colorado and Wyoming prisons and jails.

(303) 682-9593, <http://www.injail.org/>, info@injail.org

Shekinah Christian Ministries, P.O. Box 6760, Longmont, CO 80501